

SPILLCON

20 – 24 May 2019
Perth, Australia

SPEAKER

Xudong Cong

Mr. Xudong Cong is the deputy-director of Yantai Oil Spill Response Technical Center, China Maritime Safety Administration. He has the Master Degree on maritime safety and environmental administration at World Maritime University in Sweden and the Master Degree on international law at Dalian Maritime University in China. He has 21 years work experience on ship pollution prevention, oil spill response and dangerous goods transportation management. With respect to international cooperation on maritime affairs, he conducted the study on OPRC convention and HNS protocol, as well as the technical tasks of NOWPAP - the UNEP Regional Seas Programme in the Northwest Pacific region. Regarding oil spill response training courses, he give lectures on legal framework of oil spill response, oil spill contingency plan, etc.